

IVA Driebergen

The future in motion

IVA Driebergen is the country's leading management training institute for the mobility sector. Two and four-year daytime study programmes are available on both higher and intermediate vocational levels. These compact and small-scale programmes are initially oriented towards commercial and organisational occupations in the automotive and nautical industries, but also provide an excellent foundation for other sectors in the business community.

IVA Driebergen Business School

IVA Driebergen Business School offers programmes on intermediate and higher vocational levels. Two disciplines are offered: Automotive and Nautical. Students study a broad range of subjects that include economics, marketing, sales and technology. The compact and small-scale programmes are initially geared towards commercial and management-oriented occupations in the automotive and nautical sectors, but also provide an excellent foundation for other sectors in the business community. Students with a passion for cars or water sports will find an enjoyable and well-structured study programme with excellent career opportunities at IVA Driebergen.
